Committee reports.

Business Development Committee, Chairman Soila Medina

- State Business Training in Spanish in Enid in October, report by Melyn.

Design Committee

- Sent in a Design Assistance application to have the architect come and visit with Arely and Maria from La Amistad. They were approved for a November visit by the architect. Also Jose Montalvo has asked to apply.
- OPSU Soccer Club and Guymon Rotary Club will be assisting Guymon Lions at Thompson Park on Sept. 24. Soccer members will also do trash pick-up around town.

Organization Committee

- We have several soccer and baseball players from OPSU wanting Aggie Families that we need to find.

Promotion Committee, Chairman Charles White

- Still have not received a bill from Pub on the Bricks for Outback beer.
- Charcuterie Class is October 8 at Main Street Event Center. This is a fund raiser for Main Street. Lisa Schulz is teaching and we hope to have 30 attend, 17 have reserved a spot so far.

Hooker Historical Society: Main Street Guymon is being paid $5,000 for Melyn to do their Strategic Plan (they received an Oklahoma Historical Society grant). The plan will be presented at their Sept. 24 Annual Meeting. The Santa Fe Trail Voices will also be performing, for which a freewill donation will be taken. Kim

Smith moved the freewill donation be donated back to the Hooker Historical Society. Kristine seconded and approved.

Charles moved to give $500 for a business membership to the Hooker Historical Society. Deirdre seconded and passed.

Directors Report given by Melyn.

- New members Bandidos, Susie Q's, and Burgers on Wheels.
- August Vital Volunteer is Enrique Hernandez.

Adjourn: Charles moved to adjourn the meeting. Seconded by Kim and passed.

Vision: Connecting businesses, encouraging historic preservation, and engaging the local community to create a diverse and vibrant culture, providing social, educational, and economic activities.
